

CONVICT LABOR.

The Tennessee Coal and Iron Co.'s Counsel Talk.

The Company Not Responsible For the Disgraceful State of Affairs.

A Resolution Passed by the Directors Offering to Surrender the Convict Lease in the Hands of State Officers for the Last Four Years.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Col. A. S. Colyar, who is general counsel for the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co., is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. He said he was not in New York to confer with Thos. C. Platt, president of the company, regarding the convict labor troubles in Tennessee, but was on his way to Boston on legal business.

"There is no particular reason why I should see Mr. Platt on the subject of the Tennessee uprising," said Col. Colyar. "The officials of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co., Mr. Platt included, are of one mind in that matter, and the company is certainly not in any way responsible for this disgraceful condition of affairs in the state."

"A resolution passed by the board of directors, freely offering to surrender the convict lease, has been in the hands of the state officials for over four years, and the company exacts no conditions in making the surrender."

"The Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. will renew its offer to surrender its lease, and it will probably insist that its offer be accepted, and the legislature will then have to determine whether it shall again endanger the financial reputation of the state by undertaking penitentiary enterprises which will entirely remove convict labor from the contract system, or whether it shall endanger the reputation of the state as an orderly and peaceable community and alienate the anti-convict-labor voters by looking about for another company that is willing to pay the state for the labor of the convicts."

"One thing is certain, that when the Tennessee Coal and Iron Co. once gives up its lease it will never again employ convict labor. One of the chief reasons which first induced the company to take up the system was the great chance which it seemed to present for overcoming strikes. For some years after we began the convict labor system we found that we were right in calculating that free laborers would be loath to enter upon strikes when they saw that the company was amply provided with convict labor, and as I am one who does not approve of the convict system, I don't mind saying that for many years the company found this an effective club to be held over the heads of the free laborers. But the clamorings of the people for the past few years, combined with the recent disgraceful events, have disgusted the company with the whole business, and we shall all be glad when we are well out of it."

Going to Pieces.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 23.—A number of Baltimore members of the Iron Hall combined Monday in an application to place the order in the hands of a receiver, while sixteen others sued out attachments to recover on certificates alleged to be due and unpaid. The proceeding is similar to that instituted at Indianapolis, and was taken for the purpose of protecting the interests of the Baltimore members.

The Strike at Sayre and Waverly.
ELMIRA, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The switchmen's strike at Sayre and Waverly is practically a victory for the railroad company. The blockade is broken and freight is being handled without opposition. The strikers do not admit defeat, and are inclined to think there will yet be trouble in this region. The Binghamton militia are still at Waverly.

SOLDIER RESTRICTIONS.

An Ugly Element in Buffalo Which is Becoming Much Angered Thereat.

BUFFALO, Aug. 23.—Just as the setting sun touched the tops of the tall elevators and men were thick about the rum halls and blind alleys, a corporal and his men raided a group of grain shovellers who had assembled at the corner of Michigan street. "Curse the whole of you," growled one of their number, a well-known character, as he retreated. "Is this a free country?" he asked, addressing an Associated Press correspondent, who stood near. "I tell you," he continued, "it's an outrage, when men who have lived in this ward all their lives have got to be driven about like dogs by those tin soldiers from Brooklyn, and be jabbed in the legs by their bayonets if you don't scamper off the minute they tell you; we won't stand it much longer." The man went on excitedly: "We'll fix them one of these nights if they don't let up on their funny business. There are thirteen hundred of us grain shovellers and fifteen hundred longshoremen, and enough more of the boys in the lumber-yards to make a good three thousand strong men who hang around these corners. We are a good crowd, too, in a row, and most of us have done a little fighting in our day. Do you suppose we care for guns and bayonets? Not on your life. Every man of us has a good revolver that will shoot five times to their guns' once, and we know how to use them, too. I guess if we were to start one or two of these elevators blazing, and then give it to these soldiers, they would wish they were back in Brooklyn."

THE AMERICAN STRIKES.

The London Daily News Calls the Striking Miners Destroyers.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Daily News, commenting on the American strikes, strongly denounces what it terms the "barbarous and treacherous" methods of the strikers, especially the miners. It says: "These men are not entitled to the name 'strikers' in its ordinary sense. They are not even insurgents, who respect the ordinary laws of war. They are destroyers of life and property. No wonder that public feeling throughout America is aroused to a great degree against these desperadoes; and, bearing the circumstances in mind, we must make due allowance for the substance and tone of Gov. Buchanan's proclamation. We do not desire to see the rioters lynched, but it will be an evil day for democracy if such acts of brutality escape just punishment."

Boycott Causes a Failure.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 23.—The boycott instituted by Homestead strikers against tradesmen who sold to the Carnegie Steel Co., resulted Monday in the failure of Adolph Doerr, one of the principal provision dealers in that borough. Doerr furnished meat, milk and ice to Superintendent Porter and the non-unionists from the beginning of the trouble. No Amalgamated Association men have patronized him since, and his loss up to Monday night has been $10,000.

Paige's Rubberies.
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 23.—There is now no doubt that the half a million dollars of suspected paper recently issued by Paige, Carey & Co., of New York, is fraudulent.
